Group & Personal Study Guide

What stood out to you from the message this Sunday?

- What are some things that push you away from people?
- Read Genesis 2:18. Why is it not good to be alone?
- Read Philippians 2:1-4. What are some ways we can "consider the interests of others?" What are the things that keep us from it?

Read Mark 1:16-38

- Discuss the 5 types of people you should make room for? Which ones come easy to you? Where do you need the most work?
- GROW. How are you currently growing spiritually with others? How could you improve that?
- WORSHIP. How can prayer with others improve your worship? What relationships do you need to repair or where do you need to ask forgiveness in order to worship properly (See Matthew 5:22-24; 18:15-16)
- WITNESS. Why do you find it difficult to discuss your faith with those who are far from God?
- SERVE. How good are you at recognizing and serving the needs of others? What do you need to do to make more room for this?
- EXPAND. What opportunities do you have to be a light to people outside your circle of family and close friends?

CHALLENGE: Selfishness is a difficult thing to see in the mirror. Yet we are called to past our own interests and to the interests of others. Self-examine this week. Where are you more concerned with yourself than others? How can you begin to change that?

What do the following verses say to you about selfishness: 1 Corinthians 10:34, 13:4-5; James 3:16, 4:1-2; Proverbs 11:25; 2 Timothy 3:2-4; Acts 20:24; Mark 8:34; Galatians 2:20
